

Navy Recruiter Awarded Medal

Senior Chief Gunner's Mate Julian F. Barnes, Recruiter-in-Charge of the U. S. Navy Recruiting Branch Station in Fayetteville, was presented the Navy Achievement Medal in ceremonies at the U. S. Navy Recruiting District, Raleigh, headquarters in Raleigh.

Barnes was cited by the Secretary of the Navy "for leadership achievement in the superior performance of his duties as Leading Chief Petty Officer of the Ordnance Division, USS Nitro (AE-23) from 14 May 1970 to 29 February 1972. Senior Chief Petty Officer Barnes consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. Through exceptional skill, resourcefulness, and the effective utilization of available resources, Senior Chief Petty Officer Barnes maintained the Ordnance Division at maximum efficiency and expeditiously accomplished every underway replenishment mission. In addition, he served successfully as Chief Master at Arms and as Career Counselor. His diligent efforts and dedication inspired all who observed him and contributed significantly to the accomplishment of the ship's mission. By his outstanding performance and loyal devotion to duty, Senior Chief Petty Officer Barnes reflected great credit upon himself and the United States Naval Service."

Cmdr. Bruce G. Goodwin, Commanding Officer of the U. S. Navy Recruiting District, Raleigh, made the presentation.
